

2017 Korean Language and Culture Program for Diplomats

Program Guidelines

1. Program Objectives

The Korean Language and Culture Program for Diplomats is a one-semester (three months) Korean language training program for diplomats and foreign government officials. This program was conceived in response to the increase in number of foreign government officials seeking support for high-quality and intensive Korean language and culture training in Korea. It is our intention that this program will help participants become better equipped with Korean language proficiency to carry out their duties. Also, we hope this course will assist in furthering knowledge and understanding of Korea.

2. Training Period: From March 1, 2017 to May 31, 2017 (tentative)

3. Language Education Institute

Korean language institute at a Korean university

◆ From the year 2016 to 2018, Language Education Institute of Seoul National University is responsible for the program.

4. Eligibility

The applicants in this program should be junior-level diplomats or government officials abroad who are (or will be) working with Korea-related issues.

5. Benefits

- 1) Airfare (economy class, direct round-trip): The Korea Foundation will reimburse the participants' round-trip ticket purchases directly to their bank accounts with proof of purchase in the form of a receipt or invoice.
* Please contact the KF immediately if there are difficulties with ticket purchasing.
- 2) Monthly Stipend: The participants will be provided with KRW 1,200,000 (approximately USD 1,200) per month to cover living expenses during the training period.
- 3) Tuition Fees: To be transferred directly to the language institute.
- 4) Health Insurance: The participants will be provided with travel insurance (in case of accidental injury or illness) during the training period in the Republic of Korea.
